

SEASONS GREETINGS 2013 AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR 2014

What a busy year it has been, so much happening and so many trips. Kara sold her house in London, bought another and then moved to Copenhagen. Halfway through her contract she was offered a permanent position and so is living in Denmark for the foreseeable future. Traveling to different cities for her work. She is in Budapest as I write and then Krakow next week.

We went to Melbourne for the tennis in January and on to Tasmania yet again. We just love Tasmania and there is still more to see. So where else... Lee to London to help Kara with the move. Kara back to Sydney and NZ for a friend's wedding. Tom to Japan, followed a bit later by Lee. The Cook Islands for a winter break. Tom and Lee to Denmark with side trips to Norway, Sweden and Poland and then on to Japan to check on Grandma. All is well, everyone happy, and plans are afoot for next year.
